Brian,

I have been engaged by the Seventh-Day Adventist Conference to evaluate its land use matters with host Thousand Oaks.

I learned late today that acceptance of the 31 year old Conference acreage conditioned for dedication is on the COSCA Board agenda this Wednesday. It would be of mutual interest to postpone action until I am able to undertake the task of evaluating the utilization of the carve out parcel.

As this matter has extended this long, I see no detriment in this request. Not being aware of your agenda, I made an appointment with City Manager Drew Powers this Thursday to open discussion regarding the Conference North Area acreage.

I am aware that past Conference President Salazar advised of his intent to attend the Board meeting. I have a conflict being scheduled to attend the Rio Unified School District Board meeting Wednesday.

This message has not been discussed with Pastor Salazar nor his successor despite calls and email today. Should my continuance recommendation be modified by Conference officials, I will so inform you as promptly as possible.

Charles W, Cohen Esq.

Appreciate in advance your cooperation.
Chuck Cohen
